

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN DEVIATION FROM THE EXHIBITOR REGULATIONS (STATUS SEPTEMBER 2020)

In deviation from Paragraph 18.2, Sub-Paragraph 1 of the Exhibitor Regulations (status September 2020), if MCH cancels the exhibition prior to its official opening day for reasons set out in Paragraph 18.1 of the Exhibitor Regulations (status September 2020), the exhibitor will not be obliged to bear a portion of the costs that MCH has incurred up until the time of cancellation. This means that you will receive a full refund of the net fee for the exhibition floor space or for your participation package, insofar as you have made an advance payment for this. At the time of cancellation of the exhibition, MCH and the exhibitor will be released from their respective contractual performance obligations; any claims of the exhibitor against MCH, including in particular but not exclusively claims for damages and the reimbursement of expenditure (such as for stand construction services, hotel accommodation, travel expenses, etc.), already incurred by the exhibitor for their participation in the exhibition, are excluded.

The remaining provisions of Paragraph 18.2 remain applicable unchanged.
