Dear Sir or Madam

On September 18, IImac Basel 2025 successfully came to a close after three intensive days with 12,800 trade visitors and 400 exhibitors. The trade fair once again confirmed its role as the most important Swiss platform for chemistry and life sciences – with innovation, knowledge transfer, and networking providing fresh momentum. IImac 2025 demonstrated how an established industry event can successfully evolve with new formats and position itself with a future-oriented outlook.

In the meantime, our community platform IImac 365 already counts more than 10,000 active users – discover the fair-related content here: IImac 365.

Also take a look at the interview with Céline Futterknecht on Telebasel as well as our IImac aftermovie, which takes another look back at IImac 2025 and impressively captures the fantastic atmosphere and positive spirit.
